

SOUTHLANDS ENGLISH SCHOOL

Southlands English School in Rome is an international school which follows the English National Curriculum for students from 3 to 18 years of age. All the teachers are English mother tongue speakers with many years of experience. Southlands has students from over 30 nationalities with a strong base of Italian students.

Why chose Southlands?

Southlands is the only school in southern Rome to offer the IB (International Baccalaureate) Diploma Programme which gives access to universities worldwide. The IB programme enables you to:

- Access top universities
- Study an English language curriculum
- Learn from a broad subject spectrum
- Diploma programme learners become global citizens

Southlands offers Italian students the possibility of following the Elementare or Media Programma Ministeriale with the option of sitting end of year exams.

Southlands manages its own transport service with drivers and bus monitors on every vehicle. The door-to-door service covers several areas of Rome and pick-up are also serviced.

Via teleclide 40 - Roma
tel 06 5053932 info@southlands.it www.southlands.it

